COMMENDABLE WORK. Gratifying Results of the Labors of the Y. M. C. A.

The statement of the secretary of the Washington Young Men's Christian Association for the six months ending March. 31 last shows a gratifying increase in the work of the association. The membership is 1,208, and 462 have joined within the six months. In the business school 437 young men were enrolled. There were 522 religious meetings, with a total attendance of 12,252. Fifty-two young men made professions of faith and total decided. made professions of faith and joined

To do all this $5,705.98 was placed in the hands of the Board of Managers of which $0,124.30 was used. The management have decided to add ut-door athletics to the inducements which attract young men, at a cost of $1,800 per annum; yet with this additional expense; they will not need more than $2,500 in subscription, or 25 per cent. of the total cost for this year's work.

There is need of cash or pledges, payable on or before October 1, 1801, to the amount of $2,500, to enable the Association to close its fiscal year without indebtedness.

An appeal is made for subscriptions which may be sent to Mr. F. W. Pratt, treasurer, Sun Building, SOME HANDSOME PICTURES.

The art exhibition which is being given by Miss Celeste Bruff at 519 Ninth street is attracting much attention. Miss Bruff is well known in this city as "the flower arust," and from the appearance the exhibition presented to a Currar reporter this afternoon she justly deserves the title, for the flowers upon canvas looked exceedingly natural, showing that she who did the work is a thorough artist.

Among the beautiful pieces on exhibition are two pairs of beautiful velvet curtains upon which are painted tropical scenery and birds, two pairs of screens, life-size painting of the Duke of Marl-borough, a pond through which some

This picture has been patterned after by numerous artists, but as yet none have produced a copy which is as finely executed as this. The exhibit will remain open to the public until Saturday evening at 10 o'clock and may be continued next week.

Mrs. Brown's New Song. Wilson's Minstrels will produce to morrow night the military march song and chorus, "Our Army Un Above," and horus, "Our Army Up Above," composed by Mrs, Clara Bell Brown of this city and dedicated to the Grand Army of the Republic. The song has attracted a great deal of attention in musical circles, and, as given by the Marine Band at Chicago and other points in Mr. Sonsa's tour, has been received with enthusiasm. Mr. Wilson will bring out the song in fine style with his gilb-edged quartette and the highest orchestral effects.

Pushing Forward the Work on the New Cable Lines-Building, Digging and Track-Laying to Proceed Simultaneonsly at Various Points Along the Line-President Hurt Has His Hands Full of Business.

The first shovelfull of earth has been urned in the construction of the new able road on Fourteenth street.

Men are now engaged upon the work on Fourteenth street extended, between Boundary and Mt. Pleasant. At the rewest of the Commissioners the Railroad ompany have undertaken this part of the work first.

The reason for the Commissioners' re-questing this is that they propose con-creting Fourteenth street extended, and if this were done before the cable is laid t would necessitate a great amount of abor and a large expenditure of money, both to the railroad company and to the District.

It will require only a few days to do this, and then excavating on Pennsylvania avenue will be commenced, beginning at Thirty-second and Bridge (M) streets northwest and continuing through to Eighth and M streets southeast, the eastern terminus of the road. After this, work on the Fourteenth street line will

At the machine shops at the foot of Seventh street can be seen a large force of men working upon rails which they are curving for the various turnings and circles around which the cars must pass.

President Huri of the Washington and Georgetown Railroad said to-day that all the content of the washington and Georgetown Railroad said to-day that all the content of the washington and the washington and the washington and the washington and the washington are washington as well as of the grooved rail has been received and distributed and that a quantity of the underground machinery has arrived.

distributed and that a quantity of the underground machinery has arrived.

The laying of the tracks on Pennsylvania avenue cannot be commenced until all of the water pipes are lowered and Captain Lusk of the water department is now pushing this branch of the work as rapidly as possible. Several of the pipes at street crossings have been already lowered but it will be several days before all of the work will have been completed.

The demolishing of the structures on the half square on Eighth, between L and M streets southeast, hus been nearly completed, and on this property will be erected a car shed and machine shops.

The plans for the power-house to be erected on square 255 (5, D, Thirteenth and Thirteen-and-a-half streets northwest) have not yet arrived, but President Hurt expects them from Kansas City at any time, and upon their receipt the erection of the power-house will be begun. This structure will be six stories above ground and one pelow the level of the street.

of the piles used they will last an indefinite their arrival will be driven into the earth.

Mr. D. S. Carrl, a distinguished engineer, has immediate supervision of the

The Washington and Georgetown Rull-road Company have submitted plaus to the Commissioners for a change of tracks on B street southwest in Front of the Congressional Library, when the new cable line is constructed. The present tracks are in the centre of the street but tracks are in the centre of the street, but at the request of the property-owners, the cable road tracks will be five feet north of the centre. The plans have received the centre. The plans Colonel Robert's approval.

EIGHTEEN RUNS MADE.

EQUALLY DIVIDED BETWEEN WASH-INGTON AND ATHLETICS.

It Was a Very Even Game in Every Respect-Dowd Made His First Appearance and Made a Phenomenal Record-How the Clubs Stand-Diamond Dust.

The Washingtons played the most exiting game of the season yesterday and after nine innings it ended with the score atle. The home team played with a snap and vim that was refreshing and it is eviwork. Bad judgment, however, by Davis in attempting to score from second on a short passed ball lost the game, for the runner was thrown out at home and failed to make what would have proved the winning run. It was nip and tuck throughout. The Washingtons played an uphill game throughout and after the score was tied McQueery knocked a home run which put the local men in the lead, but they could not hold it for after two men were out in the last half the Athleti > tied the score.

Keefe pitched an excellent game and was more steady than at any previous time. His delivery was hit, however, at opportune times and to this fact alone is the large number of runs due, hits almost invariably following errors.

The game was characterized by hard bitting and fielding and there was plenty hitting and fielding and there was plenty of good playing to stir the enthusiasm of the L500 spectators.

Dowd, the new second baseman, played his first game here and immediately jumped into popular favor. He accepted every chance, ran like a deer, made four hits out of five times at the bat and played such a dashy game that the crowd enthroned him as an idol at once.

The following is the score by innings: Washington, 0 0 0 1 3 1 3 0 1-0

With the bases full in the Philadelphia League game, yesterday, O'Brien drove a liner to Shindle, who held it, touched third, and then threw to second, completing a great triple play and probably saving the game for the Phillies. In the first inning Ward had the thumb of his right hand knocked out and had to retire.

League umpires are beginning to en-counter the slings and arrows of fortune as well as their brethren of the Associa-tion. Captain Hanlon protested so vigor-ously against a decision of Powers in Pittsburg yesterday that he was ordered from the game, and Browning was fined $5 for grumbling about strikes and balls. The indications are for a hard year on the umpires.

It will be a long time before any player equals the record made by Washington's new second baseman. Four hits out of five times at the bat, three runs, one put out, five assists, and four stolen bases, besides participating in two double plays, is phenomenal.

one, near Fourth street.

Dr. Carl Seiler, a writer for the Medical and Surgical Reporter and other papers, says that typhoid fever, grip, and all forms of nervous disease, are caused by chemical poisoning by absorption and induction, and prescribes bengoate of soda and stimulants, where the heart or circulation is affected. The soda to be given in ten grain doses every two hours and some form of alcohol or spirits in one-half ounce doses every four hours, with absolute rest.

absolute rest. There is a notable decrease in the num her of grip sufferers in this locality, al-though the list of convalescents is rather a large one.

The weekly night services now being held at the Christian Church, recently completed at the corner of Teath street and Maryland avenue northeast, are well attended, and many new converts have been gained.

There will be an interesting programme rendered this evening at the ladies bazaar over the National Capital Bank, 314 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, consisting of instrumental and vocal music and rectations. The programme deferred last night upon account of the indisposition of Miss Bessie Walpert is expected to be given with some additions this evening. less than $500 was cleared at the K. G. E.'

Some time ago Mr. George E. Davis, the Bridge-street grocer, was arrested for selling liquor without a license, and at the conclusion of the case, in which he was acquitted, he used every known adjective in the grammar, together with a large number which would not look well in print. Officer Jack Rengan arrested Davis and escorted him to the Harrison-street police station.

Nearly all the grin sufferers are reported.

Nearly all the grip sufferers are reported better, but since the measels have started in, the disease has become almost an epidemic.

Several of the publis of the Washingtonstreet School, and a number of scholars of the Market Space School, are confined to their homes with the disease.

St. Therea's Branch, No. 581, of the tickets for an excellent catestianment to tickets for an excellent entertainment, to be given in the Jackson-street Hall the 6th of March. The workings of the various secret soeleties of this place, as well as those in the city, will be reported under a special head-line in the future.

WEST WASHINGTON.

Bebind the But.

Dowd's a daisy.

Gore, who lost the opening New York game to Boston by trying to make a one-hand circus catch in the ninth inning, was disciplined yesterday. President Day says the free bridge, and it has recently added to its already extensive plant one of the most extensive stone-crushers known to the stone trade. Its capacity is 400 yards the stone trade. Its capacity is 400 yards of stone per day. It was erected under the supervision of Mr. J. B. Gordon, the company's architect, and was given its initial test a few day ago, working without the discovery of the slightest defect in its rather complicated arrangement of elevators, twisting apparatus and crusher. It turns out the crushed stone which forms the bedding of concrete pavements and which the ordinary citizen has an idea is broken up by brawny loborers with siedge hammers. The first output of the crusher will be about 25,000 cubic differences. of the crusher will be about 25,000 cubic yards of stone to be used in laying the cable road on the Washington and Georgetown branch of the W. & G. Rail-The company will also furnish a large amount of the material to be used in con-structing a light house at Cape Hatteras. The company already has a large force of men employed, which will soon be in-creased to at least 400. This and other en-terprises which are rapidly developing in West Washington, taken with the repairs on the Chesapeake and Ohjo canal, which on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, which are being pushed to completion for the business of the coming summer, are pretty large-sized straws, showing that the wind of prosperity laden with the ozone of business enterprise, is blowing strongly and steadily in this direction.

SOUTH WASHINGTON. Yesterday Martin Keily, a shoemaker aged about 50 years, residing at 312 N street, was around as usual attending to his business. He disposed of a number of pairs of shoes during the day and retired to his room in apparently first-class health. About 4 o'clock p. m. his wife found him stretched on his bed cold and lifeless. A poplexy is supposed to have caused his sudden death. The coroner has been notified.

Officers Sontag, Filgate, Teiling, Turn burke and Geaghan of the Fourth Police recinct are on the sick list.

Police Sergeant J. N. Barry is off o cave, owing to the death of his sister. The meeting at Rescue Branch of the Central Union Mission last night was well attended. It is expected that the Rev. Scott F. Hershey, paster of the Sixth Presbyterian Church, will conduct the services to-night. On Sunday night the Rev. Dr. Bray will preach, taking for his subject, "The Bread of Life."

Mr. Severance will conduct the services at the Gospel Hall branch of the Central Union Mission to night.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Stewart.

owing to the illness of Mrs. Stewart, the wife of the superintendent of Gossel Hall Mission, on Eleventh street, between F and Water streets, no services were held there on the last two meeting nights. The regular meeting nights of the mission are Tuesday and Friday.

Mr. McKenney, the genial dispenser of liquids at Ford's restaurant, on Water street, has made an important addition to his moscom in the shape of a pair of large red Virginia bats, weighing about five pounds each. They were captured on the flats by Mr. McKenney himself, and are attracting a great deal of attention owing to the fact that they are very rarely seen in captivity. Officer Philip J. Hayden is off duty for a few days owing to repairs incidental to the addition of another rib. Himself and his wife, formerly Miss Jenny Hef-flefinger, laye the best wishes of many riends for a prosperous voyage on the sea of matrimony.

Officer Loarie is on duty again, baying ecovered from a severe attack of the St. Dominick's Association gave an en-joyable entertainment at St. Dominick's Hall, corner of Sixth and P streets, last evening

The Hon, John A. Kasson in his lec-tures upon diplomacy declares that it is "the very spirit of democracy to urge the adoption of such diplomatic usages as shall enable the United States to take fitting rank among the nations of the world and to take just and proportionate share in international negotiations."

Major Peyton Randolph. Major Peyton Randolph died at his redence at 18 Iowa Circle last Wednesday

Major random was one of the bosts, and for a number of years he held the position of third vice-president of the Richmond and Danville, the most extensive system in the South. He was a practical railroad man, and the new South is very much indebted to him for the interest he had taken in advancing its corress by stretch. taken in advancing its progress by stretching out the iron arms of the railroad and advertising the advantages of the region, so that new settlers could appreciate so that now settlers could appreciate them.

For a number of years Major Randolph has suffered from heart trouble, which was aggravated by an attack of the grip last year. But he did not desert his jest, though he was obliged to remain indeeds for the past month.

Major Randolph was a native of Virginia and a descendant of the well-known family of that name. He graduated at the Columbian University in this city. He located the main line of the Richmond and Danville, and, at the time of his death, was engaged in laying out the Mississippi and Ohio. He was in the Confederate Army and served on the staff of General Louis A. Armistead, his consin, who was killed at Gettysburg.

He was with Pickett in the famous charge, which, though it failed, is one of the most memorable events in the history of the war.

The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Townsend officiating, assisted by the Rev. George Norton of Alexandria.

Charles Hollingsworth Lane. Information has been received by Mr. Elliot Lane that his brother, Charles Hollingsworth Lane, died in San Francisco, Cal., on the 22d instant. The deceased went to the Pacific Coast only a short time ago in hopes that the balany air of the Pacific Coast would be beneficial to his impaired health. Mr. Lane had a large creic of geomaintances both had a large circle of acquaintances both in Washington and Baltimore. He leaves a wife and three children. The remains will be brought here and interred in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Manhattan Beach (who wants a spring hat very much)—I've got to have a new dress. Don't you see how babby this one is getting?

Mr. Beach (very much frightened)—A new dress! That will never do. Money is awful scarce. If you had said you wanted a new hat. I would not have obserted, but a new dress is out of the questioned.
